

Shtiebel Funerals - Tradition Your Way

At shtiebel, we are committed to helping you navigate the delicate path of loss with compassion and respect. Our experienced and empathetic team offers spiritual guidance and a compassionate presence during this challenging time.

Beyond funeral services, we actively support you through the palliative journey, alleviating emotional burdens preceding loss. Providing steadfast comfort ensures navigating this journey with utmost care.

Where possible, we encourage conversations about end-of-life choices and funeral plans, aiming to offer comfort and understanding.

These discussions empower individuals, fostering a sense of control to align eventual arrangements with personal values.

Following your loss, our bereavement support remains steadfast, recognising healing as a gradual process. We remain committed to offering unwavering support, providing solace, resources and a compassionate ear throughout.

Our fees are listed below and are underpinned by the charitable support we receive from the Shtiebel Benevolent Society.

About our Services & Fees

Each of the services below is complemented by a range of offerings to support the end-of-life choices for the deceased, as well as the familial and religious needs, fulfilling our vision at shtiebel of bringing personal meaning and purpose to these sacred moments.

At shtiebel, we are pleased to work in collaboration with either the Melbourne Chevra Kaddish or a secular funeral home of your choice. If you choose to select this option, with Rabbi Lazarow as your Celebrant, the details of the costs involved are found on page 4.
